

May 13
11:00-13:00
Room 5

Topic: Adaptation in Cities

Understanding and supporting adaptation decision-making in Nordic built environments: results from NORD-STAR

Programme

Chair: Richard Klein

Time	Programme
16:30 – 16:45	Mia Landauer The influence of socio-cognitive and cultural factors on adaptation and mitigation decision-making and planning in Copenhagen
16:45 – 16:50	Q&A
16:50 – 17:05	Nina Baron Understanding controversies in urban climate change adaptation: a case study of the role of homeowners in the process of climate change adaptation in Copenhagen
17:05 – 17:10	Q&A
17:10 – 17:25	Reza Fazeli Short-run and long-run climate change impacts on residential electricity consumption
17:25 – 17:30	Q&A
17:30 – 17:45	Tomasz Opach and Jan Ketil Rød Participatory mapping of resilience indicators
17:45 – 17:50	Q&A
17:50 – 18:05	Erik Glaas VisAdaptTM: Interactive visualization of climate change risks and adaptation options for Nordic homeowners
18:05 – 18:10	Q&A
18:10 – 18:25	Johannes Klein Steering with soft policy instruments: is adaptation a private good?
18:25 – 18:30	Q&A

Poster:

An attraction-based cellular automaton model for generating spatio-temporal population maps in urban areas	Khakpour Mr, Mehdi, Trondheim
--	-------------------------------